It is important that you read this document

This information will help you to choose a financial adviser that best suits your needs. It will also provide some useful information about the financial adviser that you choose. In addition to the information that I must disclose to you in this statement, I must also disclose other information to you in a separate disclosure statement (or statements), including information about the types of services that I provide, the fees that I charge, and any actual or potential conflicts of interest. If I have not provided that information to you at the same time as I give you this statement, I must provide it to you as soon as I can.

What sort of adviser am I?

I am an Authorised Financial Adviser this means I have been authorised by the Financial Markets Authority (the Government agency that monitors financial advisers) to provide the financial services described below.

How can I help you?

I have been authorised to provide you with financial adviser services in the following categories:

- Financial advice.
- Investment planning services.
- Risk and insurance products including investment linked insurance contracts as defined in the Financial Advisers Act 2008.

When I do this, I will be able to give you advice/provide a service about –

- Financial products provided by only 1 organisation:
- Financial products provided by a small number of organisations (2 to 5 organisations):

- ✓ Financial products provided by a broad range of organisations (more than 5 organisations).

How do I get paid for the services that I provide to you?

Payment type description

- Fees only My services are only paid for by the fees that you pay. I do not receive payments from other people or organisations that might influence my advice.
- ✓ Fees My services are paid for by the fees that you pay as well as in other ways.
- ✓ Commissions

There are situations in which my employer and I will be paid by other organisations. How much that payment will be depends on the decisions that you make.

- ✓ Extra payments from my employer. I may receive extra payments from my employer depending upon the decisions that you make.
- ✓ Non-financial benefits from other organisations
- ✓ Other organisations may give my employer and me non-financial benefits depending on the decisions that you make.

I am required to tell you the specific fees, commissions, extra payments, and other benefits that I have received or will, or may, receive in relation to the services that I provide to you. I must tell you these things before I give you advice/provide a service or, if that is not practicable, as soon as practicable after I give you that advice/provide that service.

What are my obligations?

As an Authorised Financial Adviser, I must comply with the Code of Professional Conduct for Authorised Financial Advisers. I also have other obligations under the Financial Advisers Act 2008 (including regulations made under that Act) and under the general law.

What should you do if something goes wrong?

If you have a problem, concern, or complaint about any part of my service, please tell me/my employer so that I /my employer can try to fix the problem.

You may contact the internal KSL Complaints Committee (KSLCC) by emailing office@ksl.co.nz. If we cannot agree on how to fix the issue or if you decide not to use the internal KSL complaints process, you can contact Financial Complaints Service Ltd (FSCL) This service will cost you nothing, and will help us resolve any disagreements.
